All terms and conditions proposed by Seller which are different from, inconsistent with, or in addition to the Order are hereby expressly rejected by Buyer and shall not form part of the Order. The Terms and Conditions and Order shall supersede and take priority over any and all previous verbal or written arrangements in connection with this Order. Seller shall promptly review the drawings and specifications following delivery and immediately notify Buyer in writing of any questions it has concerning the drawings and specifications or concerns it may have relating to the Tooling and Equipment's fitness for the Buyer's intended purposes. Seller shall promptly notify Buyer of any inconsistencies or ambiguities in Buyer's specifications upon discovering same. Seller shall provide Buyer with a schedule for completion and delivery of the Tooling and Equipment and regular progress reports so Buyer can monitor the progress and likelihood that Seller will meet the delivery requirements.

Any difference in price or time for delivery or performance resulting from such changes shall be equitably adjusted by Buyer after receipt of documentation in such form and detail as Buyer may direct. Any request for an adjustment to the Order by the Seller shall be made in writing and shall be deemed rejected unless accepted in writing by Buyer within forty-eight (48) of delivery. Unless and until Buyer issues an amended Order, any price increases or extensions of time requested by Seller shall not be binding upon Buyer.

Furthermore, Buyer will only make payments to Seller for an original invoice. All invoices must match Buyer's order by line item and specify the amount due for each individual line item (e.g. if there are five-line items on Buyer's Order at a specific pay point, all five-line items shall be listed on the invoice at that specific pay point). Invoices must be addressed and submitted to the appropriate purchasing plant or corporate office of the Buyer and to the attention of the appropriate contact, in each case, in accordance with Buyer's instructions.

All overpayments made by Buyer resulting from an amendment to the purchase price in accordance with this paragraph shall returned to Buyer within 5 business days of such amendment becoming effecting.

- (f) Without limiting Buyer's rights under paragraph 13, Seller agrees that Buyer has the right to conduct an audit of Seller's expenditures, costs and expenses and has the right to adjust the expenditures, costs and expenses accordingly. Seller agrees that payment shall only become due after Buyer determines the final cost in accordance with this paragraph. In addition to its other rights and remedies, Buyer reserves the right, without liability, to purchase substitute goods and/or services from a source other than Seller and charge Seller with any loss or damages incurred in so doing. No provision of the Order, or rendering of goods and/or services in installments, shall be construed as making the obligations of Seller severable.

Seller shall provide Buyer with all necessary drawings and instructions required to prepare the installation site and ensure delivery of same with sufficient time to prepare and construct the installation site. Such alternate procurement shall reduce Buyer's requirements or commitments for quantities ordered or to be ordered from Seller. If requested by Buyer, Seller shall, within five (5) days, provide adequate assurances that an Excusable Delay claimed by Seller will not exceed thirty (30) days. If an Excusable Delay claimed by Seller continues for thirty (30) days for more, or Seller does not provide the assurances requested by Buyer, Buyer may immediately terminate the Order without liability. Seller will maintain for at least five (5) years, and make readily available to Buyer or its duly authorized representatives at any time during normal business hours, books, records, test data and accounts prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

14. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

No limitations on Buyer's rights or remedies in any of Seller's documents shall operate to reduce or exclude such indemnification.

Buyer shall give Seller prompt written notice of any claim for which indemnification is sought under this paragraph 15. Failure to give prompt notice will not diminish Seller's obligations under this paragraph 15 to the extent such failure does not materially prejudice Seller's ability to defend the claim. Seller shall control the defense of the claim, and Buyer may participate in the defense at its discretion with counsel of its choice. Buyer shall make available information and assistance as Seller may reasonably request, at Seller's expense. Seller may not, without the prior written consent of the Buyer, consent to any judgment or settlement that (a) provides for injunctive or other non-monetary relief affecting Buyer or its Representatives or (b) does not provide for an unconditional and full release of the Buyer and its Representatives. If Seller, within a reasonable time after receipt of a request for indemnification, fails to take reasonable steps to defend Buyer or its Representative against a claim, the Buyer may undertake the defense of such claim without waiving its rights and remedies under this Agreement.

liability to Seller, if Seller: (a) repudiates or breaches any terms of this purchase order, including Seller's warranties, (b) fails to perform services or deliver goods as specified by the Buyer, (c) fails to make progress so as to endanger timely and proper completion of services or delivery of goods and does not correct such failure or breach within 10 days (or such shorter period of time if commercially reasonable under the circumstances) after receipt of written notice from Buyer specifying such failure or breach or (d) becomes bankrupt or insolvent, becomes subject to the terms of any bankruptcy, insolvency or winding-up legislation, or makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

Buyer or its agents shall have the right to audit and examine all books, records, facilities, work, material, inventories and other items relating to any termination claim of Seller. Buyer may cancel or reduce quantities ordered without cost or charge, if due to a cancellation or reduction in quantities by Buyer's OEM manufacturer or other customer through no fault of Buyer, provided that if Buyer obtains a recovery from its OEM manufacturer or other customer on account of such cancellation or reduction which is allocable to Seller, then Buyer shall pay over to Seller the share of cancellation costs so allocable actually received or recovered by Buyer.

17. TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE

In addition to any other rights of Buyer to terminate the Order or these terms and conditions, Buyer may, at its option, immediately terminate all or any part of this Order, at any time and for any reason, by giving written notice to Seller. Upon such termination, Buyer shall pay to Seller the following amounts without duplication: (a) the order price for all goods or services which have been completed in accordance with this Order and not previously paid for; and (b) the actual costs of work-in-process and raw materials incurred by Seller in furnishing the goods or services under this Order to the extent such costs are reasonable in amount and are properly allocable or apportionable under generally accepted accounting principles to the terminated portion of this Order; less, however, the sum of the reasonable value or cost (whichever is higher) of any goods or materials used or sold by Seller with Buyer's written consent, and the cost of any damaged or destroyed goods or material. Buyer will make no payments for finished goods, work-in-process or raw materials fabricated or procured by Seller in amounts in excess of those authorized by Buyer in delivery releases nor for any undelivered goods which are in Seller's standard stock or which are readily marketable. Payments made by Buyer under this paragraph shall not exceed the aggregate price payable by Buyer for the finished goods to be delivered or the services to be performed under the Order outstanding at the date of termination. Except as provided in this paragraph, Buyer shall not be liable for payment in respect of finished goods to be delivered or services to be performed outstanding at the date of termination. Except as provided in this paragraph, Buyer shall not be liable for and shall not be required to make payments to Seller, directly or on account of claims by Seller's subcontractors, for loss of anticipated profit, unabsorbed overhead, interest on claims, product development and engineering costs, facilities and equipment rearrangement costs or rental, unamortized depreciation costs, or general and administrative burden charges from termination of this order. Within thirty (30) days of termination, Seller shall submit a comprehensive termination claim to Buyer for amounts owing under this paragraph, with sufficient supporting data to permit Buyer's audit of such claim, and shall thereafter promptly furnish such supplemental and supporting information as Buyer shall request. Buyer or its agents shall have the right to audit and examine all books, records, facilities, work, material, inventories and other items relating to any termination claim of Seller.

18. CONFIDENTIALITY

It is understood that all drawings, designs, manufacturing data and other information, samples, models and prototypes of parts, products, process and equipment and design ideas obtained by Seller from Buyer, whether orally or in documented form, or developed by Seller for Buyer pursuant to this order and all copies thereof, shall be and remain the exclusive property of Buyer. All such items shall be provided to or returned to Buyer, as the case may be, when Seller has no further need thereof in the performance of this order, and in any event, upon the delivery of the goods or services hereunder. Confidential information also includes all Buyer processes, procedures and equipment observed by Seller when in Buyer facilities for the installation, servicing or maintenance of equipment, or the delivery of goods or services, or for any other purpose. Seller agrees not to use (otherwise than for the purpose of this order) or disclose to any other party for a period of five (5) years after the completion of this order, any Buyer confidential information heretofore or hereafter obtained from Buyer in connection with this order, or after receipt of the Confidential Information, whichever is longer. Seller's obligation to hold Buyer Confidential Information in confidence shall not apply to information which:

- (a) is known to Seller prior to its receipt from Buyer and Seller has written records to document such fact; or
- (b) can be shown by Seller's written records to have been obtained by Seller from a third party source that did not receive it in confidence or otherwise unlawfully; or
- (c) is, or becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this obligation.

Seller acknowledges that because of the unique and proprietary nature of the Confidential Information, in the event of any breach of this Section by Seller, Buyer shall have the right to seek and obtain injunctive relief to protect its rights herein and Seller shall be responsible for all legal and other costs incurred by Buyer in pursuing that or any other remedy at law or in equity. Any knowledge or information which Seller shall have disclosed or may hereafter disclose to Buyer in connection with this order, shall not, unless otherwise specifically agreed upon in writing by Buyer, be deemed to be confidential or proprietary information, and Buyer shall have the right to use, thereafter, or disclose such information as Buyer may deem appropriate.

19. TECHNICAL INFORMATION DISCLOSED TO BUYER

Further to the provisions of paragraph 17 of this Agreement, Seller acknowledges and agrees that no technical information it discloses or may hereafter disclose to Buyer in connection with the goods or services covered by the Order shall be deemed confidential or proprietary information, unless specifically agreed to in writing by Buyer. Seller agrees that Buyer shall have the right to use and further disclose all non-confidential and non-proprietary technical information disclosed to Buyer, and the Seller agrees not to assert any claim with respect to any such non-confidential and non-proprietary technical information disclosed by Seller to Buyer.
